

BIO for Carol Miller Gresham

Carol Gresham is a 1972 graduate of Mountain Home High School. She and her family moved to the area when she was in third grade. Carol received a Bachelor of Music Education degree from Ouachita Baptist University in 1976. During the next seven years she lived in Tulsa, Oklahoma where she began a career in commercial real estate. In 1984, Carol moved to Little Rock and developed a market research firm and relocation business. Since 1996, she and her husband Rip have enjoyed spending as much time as possible at their cabin by the White River. They relocated back here permanently a year ago. Presently, Carol is co-owner of Comfort Keepers, a non-medical in-home care franchise which services north central Arkansas and southern Missouri. She also serves on the BRMC Foundation Board, is a licensed Arkansas real estate broker and involved as a member of First Baptist Church.
