New Year's Parenting Tips

1. Listen to your child and show you value your conversations. Good communication can prevent conflict and stress.
2. Accept that children sometimes make mistakes, are inconsistent & act thoughtlessly-this is part of being a child.
3. Schedule in family fun and fitness. Laughter and physical activity are great stress reducers.
4. Keep your sense of humor when things don't go as planned. No one is a perfect parent-or a perfect child.
5. Count to 10 before you react when you get angry.
6. VISIT the Parent Center often!!! Many resources are available for you and your children. Come see what you are missing!

The Parent Center
