You can use the Page Setup command to change the settings for page orientation, size, and printing options.