Getting around in this program:
The First "Main" screen allows you to choose how to access the information about the 266 world entities or countries.

7 choices:

(1) Multimedia Elements.
View 200 photographs from around the world. See the countries up close! Play a slide show of all the images (click the slide show button) or select the image by name (scroll the list of images and click on the text to view).20 + movies, flags, charts, or languages.

(2) Geographic Search.
Select countries geographically by region.
See where the countries are in each region.
Navigate between regions.

(3) Outline Search.
Lists of the various types of information available.
These lists are of countries by type of information available.
(choose by country name).Also includes lists of other information
-- Charts, Terror groups, State Department Travel Topics, and Appendices.

(4) Word Search.
Quickly get a list of all the text portions with a search string.
Then click on any list item to go there.The search string can be: a country name or any text. This search string can be more than one word and have boolean operators AND, OR Examples:
UNITED KINGDOM

(this is a search for the words "UNITED" AND "KINGDOM" and the results would be text portions with both words. This is equivalent to UNITED AND KINGDOM.

TERRORIST OR CARBOMBINGS OR TERRORISTS
  (this is a search for any of three words TERRORIST, CARBOMBINGS, TERRORISTS the results would be text protions with any of the three words.)
Searching works best one word, multiple words with AND between.

(5) Help!
Provides tips and techniques for using this program.
This is what you are reading now.

(6) Credits.
The people involved in putting this project together.
The sources for the text. etc.

(7) Quit.
Exit the program.

At the bottom of each screen (except main) is standard set of options, including a way of getting back to the main screen.

Tips and Techniques:
How do I find something in this program:
(searching for specific information)

  How to do a general search:
        From "Main" press the " Word Search" button, now press the button
    "New Search" after the text you want to search is entered.
    An example would be that you know "Mugabe"
    is the leader of some country -- but you don't know which one.
    Search for Mugabe to find out!

  How to do a specific search:
    - You want to know the ranking of Burkina's death rate in the world. Select "Outline Search" from "Main", click on "Charts" on left and then "Death rate" in the list. Now click on the "Find within Card" button and type Burkina.
     The High to Low list will highlight and scroll down to the entry if Burkina is ranked.
    - You want to know the date that Kazakhstan was established as a country. From "Main": click on the "Outline Search" , now click on "Countries"

Using the "Go Back" button for repeated accessing of information from the same screen. Some examples:
        From the "Main" screen click on a continent such as
                "Africa", Click on "Southern Africa", now click on a country button. View the information/maps etc. Click "Go Back" to return to "Southern Africa", now click on another country button.
From the "Main" screen click on the "Outline Search" button and then select "Charts" on left, now scroll the list of comparison statistics/charts and select one to inspect by clicking on its text.

Read the rankings/search/view the charts.
Now click on "Go Back" to return to the "Charts" listing.
