

PUMPKIN

Release Date: July 2002 (NY & LA)

Unconventional Comedy

United Artists
(with American Zoetrope)

Directed by

Adam Larson Broder and
Tony R. Abrams

Written by

Adam Larson Broder

Produced by

Karen Barber
Christina Ricci
and Andrea Sperling

Producers

Albert Berger
Ron Yerxa

Executive Producers

Francis Ford Coppola
Linda Reisman
Willi Baer

Cast

Christina Ricci     Hank Harris
Brenda Blethyn     Dominique Swain
Marisa Coughlan     Sam Ball

Rated "R" for language and a scene of sexuality.

Perky, perfect Carolyn (Christina Ricci) and her Alpha Omega Pi sisters plan to win Sorority of the Year by impressing the Greek Council with a killer charity: coaching mentally challenged athletes for the regional Challenged Games. When Carolyn's assigned to coach Pumpkin (Hank Harris) she's terrified at first, but soon sees in him something she's never seen before: a gentle humanity and honest clarity that touches her soul. To the horror of her friends and Pumpkin's overprotective mother (Brenda Blethyn), Carolyn falls in love, becoming an outcast in the process. As Carolyn's "perfect life" falls apart, Pumpkin teaches her that perfect isn't always perfect after all.