

SAS/ASSIST[®] software is a point-and-click, menu-driven interface to many of the SAS System tools — such as data analysis, report writing, graphics and more. The task-oriented system is designed so users, both new and experienced, can accomplish SAS System tasks with minimal effort. In addition, because SAS/ASSIST software generates SAS code in the background, it is also useful as a prototyping tool for applications development.