

SAS/GRAPH[®] software is an information and presentation color graphics tool. It can be used to produce charts, plots and maps in a variety of colors and patterns. Graphics components can be created, stored in catalogs, retrieved as needed, and combined with other graphics. With the graphics editor, graphics output can be modified interactively without re-running the code. Additional annotation capabilities are also available. The display of multiple graphs per page provides enhanced output capability.