

SAS/STAT[®] software, a comprehensive statistical analysis tool, provides state-of-the-art statistical capabilities for regression analysis, analysis of variance, categorical data analysis, multivariate analysis (including path and factor analysis), cluster analysis, survival analysis, psychometric analysis, and non-parametric analysis. Also included are techniques for scoring and linear and nonlinear transformations of variables.