1.7 Elite

Norwegian Black Metal:

You have probably heard of Black Metal. This song was made as a tribute to all the Norwegian Black Metal bands whom have arisen threw these years and all that will come.

Whel not all, some just suck!

For those who have no idea what Black Metal is:

-Black Metal is hard metal which has currently sported some ochestral notes. It uses powerfull instruments and tones, percussion being often asmuch a part of the mellody. Speed and presision is often the stile of Black Metal. The hate of the white christ and christians often are part of the tekst and tone. The artist involved often have powerfull images, and wear makeup and weaponry (to slaughter christians)! Norway has lately been sort of the founder of Black Metal, setting the stile and most of the artists.

Hill fra Sorg...
