About

My Aquarium: My Aquarium is an all-new, original IP for WiiWare™. In this pleasant and relaxing software experience, much like a real aquarium, you can customize your fish tank with different backgrounds, gravel styles, decorations, plant life, and of course, fish.

Product

Overview: My Aquarium brings the relaxation of an aquarium to your Wii™. Sit back, interact with the fish, and enjoy the wondrous things that can happen. Don't worry if you have to go away for a while; you might even find a brand new fish when you come back! Fish & fun for the whole family. Why not add an aquarium to your home?

Features:

- Create a captivating world for your enjoyment and relaxation – Decide exactly which fish you want in your aquarium and what decorations they'll get to enjoy. Choose the glass color, lighting, background design, style of gravel, rocks, or plant life for the world your fish will inhabit. Mix and match different fish in up to 6 individual aquariums. You can even send aquariums to your friends using WiiConnect24™ if they also have My Aquarium!

- A wide selection of colorful fish – Choose from 40 different types of fish, from groupers to jellyfish. Both freshwater and saltwater fish can cohabit just fine. If you want to feed your fish, you can choose from a variety of food. You can even interact with your fish and keep a watchful eye on your favorite. Learn more about your fish in the Fish Database.
- Interacts with the Wii Forecast Channel – Tank conditions change depending on the weather in your area!
- Focused on Fun –You can simply relax and enjoy the fish. Don't worry about water temperatures or other special knowledge needed for a real aquarium. My Aquarium requires only your imagination.
