

WORD,C,1

obtain

certain

conceive

esteem

received

obey

revenue

survey

receipt

lien

failure

bestow

leisure

void

wheedle

assailant

terrain

reveal

vie

null

Sheet1

DEFINITION,C,250

to gain or acquire usually by planning or effort fixed; not to be doubted: known to be true; sure to happen: bound to occur: inevitable; assured in mind or action to form an idea of

to think of in a particular way: consider; to think very highly or favorably of took or got something that was given, paid, or sent to follow the commands or guidance of; to act in agreement with: carry out the income produced by a given source; the income that a government collects for public use to look over and examine closely; to find out the size, shape, and position of (as an area of land); to gather information from o the act or process of taking or getting something that is given, paid, or sent; a written statement saying that money or goods h a legal claim on the property of another person until he or she has met a certain obligation a failing to do or perform; neglect of an assigned or expected action; a lack of success to present as a gift

freedom from work or duties; ease; time at one's command: convenience containing nothing: empty; of no legal force or effect to get (someone) to think or act a certain way by flattering or coaxing; to gain or get by coaxing or flattering one who attacks violently with blows or words the surface features of an area of land to make known: divulge; to show plainly: display to strive to win over another: contend having no legal or binding force: invalid; having no value: insignificant

Sheet1

SENTENCE,C,80

The mission was to @ the secret documents, and bring them back to headquarters.

He was absolutely @ that the horse and carriage would be waiting at the station.

The arrangement is so good, I can hardly @ of a better.

Her acts of bravery and perseverance caused her companions to @ her.

The bank @ not compliments, but angry criticism, from the President.

The people refused to @ a law they thought was not just.

The collection of taxes is a task allocated to the department of @.

The report was the result of a @ of several districts in the state.

He stood in @ of a basket of books, an old pair of gloves, and an odd box.

It was vital to satisfy his creditors, since they had a @ on his house.

It was a @ of huge proportions, and capable of ruining the whole project.

It lies in the power of a king or queen to @ a title upon noble men and women.

Since retiring from my job two years ago, I've become a person of @.

The contract was written improperly, so they declared it @ and wrote another.

@ and coax as he may, he could not get the dog out from under the bed.

The lad turned and bravely faced his @, even though he was twice his size.

It was a dry and rocky @, and made the traveler's heart sink to look across it.

Only time will @ whether today's choices were lucky or not.

Many young men had gathered to @ for the $100 prize.

To call something void and to call it @ is to say basically the same thing.