Product Description

“There is nothing impossible to him who will try.” – Alexander the Great

It is 330 BC, and the three thousand weary military units under your command face a fearsome opposing army numbering in the tens of thousands. You are David to your opponent’s Goliath, even though you have ample resources, a multitude of units, buildings, and advancements on which to spend them – your enemy has more.

Blood will be spilt on the battlefield and honor will be put to the test, as the courage and cunning of your decisions determine your forces’ success. Command vast armies and heroes from Alexander the Great’s era. Triumph in epic real-time battles using formations, morale, and authentic battle tactics.

Key Features
