Title   : 2Siege.wad
Author   : Shayne Hawthorne(2besiege.wad)

Internet address: shayne.hawthorne@graphcon.com
                   OR
                 winston@aros.net

Description   :While winging around in your ship, you spy a odd looking complex on a small planet.
                   You grab your trusty shotgun and teleport down for a look.

Additional Credits to   : The Guys at ID for making such a great game and letting us build wads for it.

                      Mel Rogers for many hours of playtesting it.

                      Matthew Ayres for programing Waded

P.S This wad is not the one mention in 2besiege.zip. It was called Siege.wad and was made for DOOM1.
