

File Mover

Copyright 1993 by Matt Pauker

File Mover moves any files dropped onto it into their correct places in the system folder (e.g. Extensions are placed in the Extensions folder). If the program cannot figure out where to put it, it will give you a few choices of where to place it. Read the accompanying Read Me file for more information.

Either drop files onto File Mover or click on Run to select a file.