

Reaction to Anniversary IssuePeter Guilbert, Guernsey, Channel Island, Europe

Yes, it's great again, but couldn't you have shared the prizes a little more? Some of us have subscribed to every issue, and as such perhaps have contributed to the success of NAUTILUS. Can't we be winners, too?

N:

We value each subscriber and would have liked to have given a prize to each one of you. But since we now have thousands of subscribers around the world, that just wasn't possible. We are considering ongoing promotions and contests to show our appreciation for your support, so please let us know what types of promotions and prizes are valuable to you. And thanks again for a great year!
