

A Word From Windham Hill:

"It was built on its commitment to quality, its devotion to creativity, and its understanding of its customers."

(ENTREPRENEURIAL WOMAN, Summer, 1989.)

Anne Robinson, co-founder, president and CEO of Windham Hill Records says, ". . . we create the music people hear in their heads -- and would make themselves -- if they played piano, guitar, flute, whatever."

(ELLE, February, 1987.)

We hope you enjoy this tour of the music of some of our most diverse recording artists.

We are pleased to make the recordings featured this issue available for purchase. For your convenience we have provided both CDs and cassettes, and with each order we'll include a free sampler cassette.

Windham Hill will continue to selectively evolve, nurturing the relationship it has developed with its customers.
