

DreamLight® Incorporated

Corporate Background

At DreamLight, we strive to create the highest quality computer graphics that will produce exceptional results for our clients while we continually explore and expand the limits of digital media.

DreamLight is an interactive multimedia company that has been producing award winning digital design, illustration and multimedia since its incorporation by Michael Scaramozzino in April of 1987. DreamLight is currently developing a new multimedia technology for the creation of interactive animated characters called DreamLight Microbots™ the first of which is named 3BD™ and should be available soon. Keep your eyes open for an early DreamLight prEview of 3BD™.
