

What is it?

The Output Volume/Level Meter controls the output volume and shows the output level for the left and right channels.

How to use it

When the red light comes on, it means the output sound is being clipped. Some clipping is normal, but too much causes distortion. When the option key is held down, both of the sliders will be moved.

Notes

See "Sound Out" Preferences for more information.