

COLUMBUS ZOO TOURS

10 DAYS IN KENYA

AUGUST 6-15, 1993

$3,195.00 per person

About your tour escort: Patricia Cupps is the Director of Marketing at The Columbus Zoo. Patty started with the Zoo 13 years ago while she was studying zoology at Ohio State University. While at the education department, she worked with Jack Hanna and took over the responsibilities of the Adopt-an-Animal program. As Marketing Director, she works closely with Zoo visitors and donors.

Patty accompanied her husband, Bill, when he led a tour to Kenya and Tanzania in 1989, and is looking forward to another enjoyable wildlife experience in this magnificent country.

DAY 1 o COLUMBUS/EN ROUTE

The excitement of your safari adventure starts the moment you board your Atitalia Airlines flight in Chicago after your short flight from Columbus.

DAY 2 o ROME/NAIROBI

Arrive in Rome this morning and connect with your flight to Nairobi. This evening, land in Kenyatta International Airport where you Park East Tours Courier welcomes you with a friendly "Jambo" (hello) and escorts you to your hotel, located in the center of this cosmopolitan city, the Safari Capital of East Africa. INTER-CONTINENTAL HOTEL

DAY 3 o NAIROBI/TREE HOTEL

This morning is at leisure to relax at your hotel and absorb the rhythms of life on East Africa. In the afternoon, drive north via Kikuyu country to the newest of the world-famous Tree Hotels. From the comfort of your hotel, which is built on stilts over a waterhole, you can view elephant, cape buffalo, rhino, baboon and antelope.

MOUNTAIN LODGE TREE HOTEL

DAYS 4/5 o MT. KENYA SAFARI CLUB/SAMBURU GAME RESERVE

Today you'll lunch at the Mt. Kenya Safari Club, a magnificent resort carved out of the wild and built on the slopes of Mt. Kenya. Continue north to the Samburu Game Reserve which is rich in wildlife not seen in other parts of Kenya. Here, you'll find the gerenuk, reticulated giraffe, dik-dik, and Grevy's zebra, along with colorful birds. SAMBURU SERENA LODGE.

DAY 6 o LAKE NAKURU

Your drive this morning takes you through the picturesque Rift Valley to Lake Nakuru, a shallow alkaline lake - the world-famous haunt of flamingos. Wildlife here includes hundreds of species of birds, as well as a variety of mammals, such as the Bohor reedbuck, leopard, hippo, the rare Rothschild giraffe and the very long-eared leaf-nosed bat. SAROVA LION HILL.

DAYS 7/8 o MASAI MARA GAME RESERVE

Continue to the Masai Mara Game Reserve, the northern part of the Serengeti, one of Kenya's most favored game-viewing areas. This is the Africa of your imagination: endless reaches of acacia-dotted grasslands studded with hazy hills and abundant wildlife. You will be in the Mara during the annual migration, when great herds of wildebeest (1.4 million), zebra (400,000) and other animals make their seasonal journey back to the Tanzania side of the Serengeti plains. At this time, prides of 40 or more lion may be seen. During your game runs, you will find unspoiled nature, and one of the largest varieties of animal species on earth. While in the Mara, a Park Ranger will join you and discuss animal habits and conservation (duties permitting). FIG TREE CAMP.

DAY 9 o NAIROBI/EN ROUTE

After breakfast drive back to the modern city of Nairobi. A day room will be provided at the Inter-Continental Hotel. Tonight, you will be escorted to the airport for your flight to Europe, saying "Kwaheri" (goodbye) to Africa.

DAY 10 o ROME/COLUMBUS

This morning your jet lands in Rome where you connect with your flight to the U.S.A., and home.
