Concerning the last node, that is, the "Revenue" node, we only need to make sure that it gets the right unit:

This node should not have any hidden local value. Thus, all the settings in the "Distribution" view are ignored completely. We may check the "Operators" view to verify that its algorithm in fact is "Global only", and that its operator is "Sum".