FROM: Delta Command, Fort Bragg
TO: Bravo One
SUBJECT: Prisoner rescue

Now that we have slowed the drug trade for the moment, we can concentrate on more important missions outside of merely stopping the drug trade. We're going to cut it off at the source by destroying cartel bases and capturing key cartel leaders. However, this mission will be different.

Two days ago, four Colombian government agents were surveying a restaurant where Enrico Ebanes was suspected of visiting several times. They suddenly disappeared, and eye-witnesses say that armed men forced the agents out of their Land Rover and drove away with them.

The agents could be carrying valuable information as to where Ebanes is hiding. Bring them back. You will be dropped from a C-130 and parachuted into the Casare River. You will then swim upriver in an LAR-V and infiltrate the enemy base. Eliminate all opposition and find the prisoners.

It is important that you stick to the river. We need to maintain a surprise attack to be able to get the prisoners out alive. The guards will execute the hostages if they see you, so move quickly once you are inside the base. Black Widow will meet you at the Extraction Point.
