Image Integrator can display library items in text list form or it can display thumbnails. To display thumbnails of the graphics in the library, thumbnails must have been imported from Fetch. When a display of thumbnails in the Image Integrator palette is desired,   select Thumbnail from the Image Integrator palette's View menu. The current library's items are displayed showing a thumbnail representation of each graphic accompanied by its file name, file type, and volume.