

Childer

Comical as it may seem, there is a generation gap amongst Vampires as there is in mortal society. The younger Vampires - those created in the latter half of this century - include an element which chafes at the restrictions of Kindred society and laws. Like rebellious teenagers, these "Anarchs", as they call themselves, demand their freedom and ignore the effects on the rest of their kind. They would create their own Broods without restraint, deny the authority of the Princes, break the laws of the Masquerade, and do a hundred other things which would force the knowledge of our existence upon the mortal world.

The elders, and many other Kindred, do not take kindly to this attitude, and in some places a virtual state of war exists between them. Some see this as a sign of the end of the current cycle, and speak of our imminent extinction.

These anarchs do not believe that they are being told the truth by the Elders, and they know that they are not being told all about their situation. The elders do not trust the Anarchs, fearing that these Ancilla seek to slay them.
