Thank you for trying out Prison Guard Tower Tracker! by Albert C. Ashton

Prison Guard Tower Tracker offers continuous multimedia wave sound effects playing in the background even when you use your mouse tool in this case your mouse will turn into a infered nightscope or spotlight. When you click on the mouse buttom trigger your mouse will turn into the your hand/finger when you catch the prisoner.

This game is also larger, using the entire screen on standard VGA at 640x480. Previous games were smaller in size, but still fun to play.

We are now rating our games just like they do on the home video game market .

GA = GENERAL AUDIENCES (Appropriated for all audiences)
MA-13 = MATURE AUDIENCES (Parental Discretion Advised)

These are the two ratings I'll be using in my upcoming games titles.

PRISON GUARD TOWER TRACKER is rated at GA

I hope you enjoy playing this new format, and there will be more brand new titles in the works for future releases within the year. You may have already downloaded or been trying out the new Thy Dragon v1.0 (THYDRG10.ZIP), and now you have the Prison Guard Tower Tracker which is the 4th member of the Tracker Arcade Series to be released. Of course more games will be out by the time you read this letter in the months ahead.

Very early last year we started out with one game called Time Bomb v1.0, that was very limited , no sound, small scoring totals just a plain and simple game. Now we have about 16 games all in full multimedia wave sound effects and the latest version Time Bomb out in circulation This brings our total to-date too 19 games, but this total will change as new games hit the air waves.

If you interested in checking out any of these games take alook at menu item ? for more info.

By the way all you help info about the game your going to playt is now access through this question mark **?.
