 You will never be the same. Never.

YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED

(And soon maimed!)

 Alusleikki

Sector QB-723a, dominated by Ghosts and Evil Eyes, is certainly no place for a human cruiser like this. Even if their Plexonium armor can keep the spirits outside, it's useless against the quick and cunning alien predator vessel that runs rounds around the big and clumsy earthling. As a last result, they try to bomb the alien with loads of bio-waste, but unfortunately the blasted craft is invulnerable to such desperate attacks. It is clear now, their time is running out.

Die Boote

Deep in the dark depths of the inner space, near the core of earth itself, are these hordes of submarines battling against each other. Their task is to win the greatest of all prizes, the mastery of the Earth itself. However, there are the Other Things. The Other Things that lurk at the bottom of the sea. Being true masters of the earth and the filth that lives on its surface, they tolerate no aggression towards their perpetual domain.

Joulun Henki

As you can see, the Spirit of Christmas itself approves JIP's another Christmas-related multimedia masterpiece. Even the stars rejoice and dance at the xmas time.

Kasvukivut

This is about the mental and physical pains a finnish girl has to go trough while she is growing into adulthood. Yes, the vikings, the trees and the rainbow. They are all there.

Metal Show

The scorching sun boils the blood of the pitiful humans deposited on this test ground. There is no water, just gray-hot metal burning their feet. At last, they perish, and the Trees that are alive suck the last life essences out of them. There will be no rest after Death, as the souls ascend as tormented ghosts to the great soul-pool at the heavens above.

Voodoo Dreams

Modern VooDoo is a horrible thing to experience. It's not anything like these stupid dolls that are stuck with needles, or brainless negro zombies running around with bloodshot eyes. Instead, Modern Voodoo Dreams feature the latest in the Haunt business. Ghosts like Tie-fighters, invisible flying strawberry anomalies, and ofcourse your tortured String of Life. Balanced on it there stands the C.PT5 Cone, collecting your stress output and transforming it into its own weight. Enough stress and your string of life will snap, leaving you a vegetable-like hulk of human waste...

1.3 We are the Space Aces.
