

Auto-Crop

Examines an image and removes any unnecessary background areas. This option works best for images that have a solid color as their background, such as white or black. It is also a good idea to apply Auto-Crop after Auto-Straighten, as it removes any surplus background areas created after straightening.