Technical tips

If you are experiencing any of the following problems,

- Memory Allocation Error during installation
- Distorted images
- General Protection Fault (GPF) when creating a movie

then your video drive may be incompatible with the Microsoft Video for Windows drivers. We recommend that you call your video card manufacturer and verify that you have the most recent drivers. You can also try changing your display mode in the Control Panel Display applet. Microsoft recommends a setting of 640x480x65K for Video for Windows.

Customize the screen saver

You can customize the screen saver by adding and removing clips, enabling sound, and enabling special effects:

1. Insert the Morphing Mania Screen Saver CD-ROM into your CD-ROM drive.
2. Click Start, highlight Programs, highlight Blast!, highlight Morphing Mania Screen Saver, and then click Morph Mania Saver Setup.
3. To add a clip,
 - In the Morph Mania Setup Box, click Add.
 - In the Browse dialog box that appears, choose the CD-ROM drive from the Drives list, and then in the Directories list box, double-click on CDMORPHS. The file name of each morph clip appears in the list box on the left side of the Browse Dialog Box.
 - Click a file name of a morph clip, and then click Play to preview the morph clip, or Add to add the image to your Morphing Mania screen saver.
4. To remove a clip from the screen saver show, click the clip in the Installed clips list, and then deselect the Include in screen saver check box. To remove the clip from your hard drive, click Delete.
5. To play a unique soundtrack during the screen saver, make sure the Include soundtrack check box is selected.
6. To enable special effects while transitioning between clips, make sure the Special effect transitions check box is selected.
