

XrX Animated Logo Utility

This is the second beta version of a utility to create and display Windows 95 animated startup logos. It still has a ways to go, at least it works at this point.

Check the XrXLogo.txt file for basic instructions.

I've never been much of a documentation writer:

Real Programmers don't write documentation,
If it was tough to write it should be tough to use....

(Or at least a good source of support revenue)

If you have any comments, please feel free to contact me, remember this is a beta release.
