ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We deeply appreciate the cooperation and generation of data by the Montana Bureau of Mines and Geology, North Dakota Geological Survey, Wyoming State Geological Survey, and South Dakota Geological Survey throughout our investigation. Special thanks are expressed to the U.S. Bureau of Land Management in the Casper, Rawlins, and Rock Springs Field Offices in Wyoming, in the Montana State Office in Billings, and in the Wyoming State Office in Cheyenne for facilitating data acquisition and development. Appreciation is specially extended to Charlie Gaskill, Norm Braz, Nancy Doelger, John Spencer, E.L. Heffern, K.L. Jewell, Jim Gruber, Brenda Vosika, J.H. Webb, and Steve Wiig from these BLM offices for facilitating data collection. The Wyoming Department of Environmental Quality, with the help of R.P. Christensen, made their files available for acquisition of mine data. The U.S. Office of Surface Mining (OSM) in Denver, Colorado, provided assistance in collecting digital database and coverages of mine properties and leases as well as mine geology and coal quality data. J.R. Galetovic and L.M. Wagner of OSM provided special assistance in training project members in and acquiring StratiFact software used in creating our database, and release of the CHIAG database. Finally, we value the cooperation of the following mines in Montana: Big Sky mine, Decker mines, Rosebud mine, and Spring Creek mine; in North Dakota: Beulah mine (Knife River), Falkirk mine, Freedom (Coteau) mine, Center (BNI) mine, and Gascoyne mine (Knife River); and in Wyoming: Antelope mine, Belle Ayr mine, Black Butte mine, Buckskin mine, Cordero Rojo mine, Cyprus Shoshone mine, Eagle Butte mine, Fort Union mine, Glenrock mine, Jacobs Ranch mine, Jim Bridger mine, Medicine Bow mine, Rawhide mine, Thunder Basin mine, and Wyodak mine.

Special thanks are extended to the following mining geologists and engineers of coal mines as well as supervisors and managers of coal companies who provided assistance and information pertaining to the assessment: Kris Budak, C.L. Blohm, Tim Brown, Randy Burggraff, R.L. Carlson, D.J. Davison, Tim Fagley, Neal Forbes, A.J. Gaudielle, W.L. Gerhard, R.A. Gjere, J.F. Goss, Curtis Heidenreich, E.K. Hertel, D.M. Hogkiss, D.R.
