ACT IV, SCENE I.

[A cavern. In the middle, a caldron boiling. Thunder. Enter the three WITCHES.]

FIRST WITCH.

Thrice the brinded cat hath mew'd.

SECOND WITCH.

Thrice and once the hedge-pig whined.

1

THIRD WITCH.

Harpier cries:- 'tis time, 'tis time.

FIRST WITCH.

Round about the caldron go;

In the poison'd entrails throw.-

Toad, that under cold stone

Days and nights has thirty-one

Swelter'd venom sleeping got,

Boil thou first i' the charmed pot. ALL.

Double, double toil and trouble; Fire, burn; and, caldron bubble. SECOND WITCH.

Fillet of a fenny snake,

In the caldron boil and bake;

Eye of newt, and toe of frog,

Wool of bat, and tongue of dog,

Adder's fork, and blind-worm's sting,

Lizard's leg, and howlet's wing,-For a charm of powerful trouble, Like a hell-broth boil and bubble.

ALL.

Double, double toil and trouble; Fire, burn; and, caldron, bubble. THIRD WITCH.

Scale of dragon; tooth of wolf; Witches' mummy; maw and gulf Of the ravin'd salt-sea shark;

Root of hemlock digg'd i' the dark;

Liver of blaspheming Jew;

Gall of goat; and slips of yew Sliver'd in the moon's eclipse; Nose of Turk, and Tartar's lips;

Finger of birth-strangled babe

Ditch-deliver'd by a drab,-

Make the gruel thick and slab:

Macbeth/ACtIV 2 Add thereto a tiger's chaudron, For th'ingredients of our caldron. ALL. Double, double toil and trouble; Fire, burn; and, caldron, bubble. SECOND WITCH. Cool it with a baboon's blood. Then the charm is firm and good. [Enter HECATE.] HECATE. O, well done! I commend your pains; And every one shall share i' the gains: And now about the caldron sing, Like elves and fairies in a ring, Enchanting all that you put in.[Music and a song, "Black Spirits," etc. Exit HECATE] SECOND WITCH. By the pricking of my thumbs, Something wicked this way comes:-Open, locks, Whoever knocks! [Enter MACBETH.] MACBETH. How now, you secret, black, and midnight hags! What is't you do? ALL. A deed without a name. MACBETH. I conjure you, by that which you profess,-Howe'er you come to know it, - answer me: Though you untie the winds, and let them fight Against the churches; though the yesty waves Confound and swallow navigation up; Though bladed corn be lodged, and trees blown down; Though castles topple on their warders' heads; Though palaces and pyramids do slope Their heads to their foundations; though the treasure Of nature's germens tumble all together, Even till destruction sicken, - answer me To what I ask you. FIRST WITCH. Speak. SECOND WITCH.

Macbeth/ACtIV 3 Demand. THIRD WITCH. We'll answer. FIRST WITCH. Say, if th'hadst rather hear it from our mouths, Or from our masters? MACBETH. Call 'em, let me see 'em. FIRST WITCH. Pour in sow's blood, that hath eaten Her nine farrow; grease that's sweaten From the murderer's gibbet throw Into the flame. ALL. Come, high or low; Thyself and office deftly show! [Thunder. FIRST APPARITION: an arm'd Head.] MACBETH. Tell me, thou unknown power,-FIRST WITCH. He knows thy thought: Hear his speech, but say thou naught. FIRST APPARITION. Macbeth! Macbeth! Macbeth! beware Macduff; Beware the thane of Fife.- Dismiss me:-enough. [Descends.] MACBETH. Whate'er thou art, for thy good caution, thanks; Thou hast harp'd my fear aright:- but one word more,-FIRST WITCH. He will not be commanded: here's another, More potent than the first. [Thunder. SECOND APPARITION: a bloody Child.] SECOND APPARITION. Macbeth! Macbeth! Macbeth!-MACBETH. Had I three ears, I'ld hear thee. SECOND APPARITION. Be bloody, bold, and resolute; laugh to scorn The power of man, for none of woman born Shall harm Macbeth.[Descends.] MACBETH. Then live, Macduff: what need I fear of thee?

Macbeth/ACtIV 4 But yet I'll make assurance double sure, And take a bond of fate: thou shalt not live; That I may tell pale-hearted fear it lies, And sleep in spite of thunder. [Thunder. THIRD APPARITION: a Child crowned, with a tree in his hand. What is this, That rises like the issue of a king, And wears upon his baby-brow the round And top of sovereignty? ALL. Listen, but speak not to't. THIRD APPARITION. Be lion-mettled, proud; and take no care Who chafes, who frets, or where conspirers are: Macbeth shall never vanguish'd be, until Great Birnam wood to high Dunsinane hill Shall come against him.[Descends.] MACBETH. That will never be: Who can impress the forest; bid the tree Unfix his earth-bound root? Sweet bodements! good! Rebellion's head, rise never, till the wood Of Birnam rise, and our high-placed Macbeth Shall live the lease of nature, pay his breath To time and mortal custom.- Yet my heart Throbs to know one thing: tell me,- if your art Can tell so much,- shall Banguo's issue ever Reign in this kingdom? ALL. Seek to know no more. MACBETH. I will be satisfied: deny me this, And an eternal curse fall on you! Let me know:-Why sinks that caldron? and what noise is this? [Hautboys.] FIRST WITCH. Show! SECOND WITCH. Show! THIRD WITCH. Show! ALL.

Macbeth/ACtIV Show his eyes, and grieve his heart; Come like shadows, so depart! [A show of eight KINGS, the last with a glass in his hand; BANQUO'S GHOST following.] MACBETH. Thou art too like the spirit of Banguo; down! Thy crown does sear mine eyeballs:- and thy hair, Thou other gold-bound brow, is like the first:-A third is like the former.- Filthy hags! Why do you show me this?- A fourth?- Start, eyes!-What, will the line stretch out to th'crack of doom?-Another yet?- A seventh?- I'll see no more:-And yet the eighth appears, who bears a glass Which shows me many more; and some I see That twofold balls and treble sceptres carry: Horrible sight!- Now I see 'tis true; For the blood-bolter'd Banguo smiles upon me, And points at them for his.- What, is this so? FIRST WITCH. Ay, sir, all this is so:- but why Stands Macbeth thus amazedly?-Come, sisters, cheer we up his sprites, And show the best of our delights: I'll charm the air to give a sound, While you perform your antic round; That this great king may kindly say Our duties did his welcome pay.[Music.The WITCHES dance, and vanish.] MACBETH. Where are they? Gone?- Let this pernicious hour Stand ave accursed in the calendar!-Come in, without there! [Enter LENNOX.] LENNOX. What's your Grace's will? MACBETH. Saw you the weird sisters? LENNOX. No, my lord. MACBETH. Came they not by you? LENNOX. No, indeed, my lord.

Macbeth/ACtIV 6 MACBETH. Infected be the air whereon they ride; And damn'd all those that trust them!- I did hear The galloping of horse: who was't came by? LENNOX. 'Tis two or three, my lord, that bring you word Macduff is fled to England. MACBETH. Fled to England! LENNOX. Ay, my good lord. MACBETH. Time, thou anticipatest my dread exploits: The flighty purpose never is o'ertook Unless the deed go with it: from this moment The very firstlings of my heart shall be The firstlings of my hand. And even now, To crown my thoughts with acts, be it thought and done: The castle of Macduff I will surprise; Seize upon Fife; give to the edge o' th'sword His wife, his babes, and all unfortunate souls That trace him in his line. No boasting like a fool; This deed I'll do before this purpose cool: But no more sights!- Where are these gentlemen? Come, bring me where they are.[Exeunt.] ACT IV, SCENE II. [Fife. A room in Macduff's castle. Enter LADY MACDUFF, her SON, and ROSS.] LADY MACDUFF. What had he done, to make him fly the land? ROSS. You must have patience, madam. LADY MACDUFF. He had none: His flight was madness: when our actions do not, Our fears do make us traitors. ROSS. You know not

Whether it was his wisdom or his fear. LADY MACDUFF. Wisdom! to leave his wife, to leave his babes,

His mansion, and his titles, in a place

From whence himself does fly? He loves us not; He wants the natural touch: for the poor wren, The most diminutive of birds, will fight, Her young ones in her nest, against the owl. All is the fear, and nothing is the love; As little is the wisdom, where the flight So runs against all reason. ROSS.

Mv dearest coz.

I pray you, school yourself: but for your husband, He is noble, wise, judicious, and best knows The fits o' th'season. I dare not speak much further: But cruel are the times, when we are traitors, And do not know ourselves; when we hold rumour From what we fear, yet know not what we fear, But float upon a wild and violent sea Each way and move.- I take my leave of you: Shall not be long but I'll be here again: Things at the worst will cease, or else climb upward To what they were before.- My pretty cousin, Blessing upon you! LADY MACDUFF. Father'd he is, and yet he's fatherless. ROSS. I am so much a fool, should I stay longer, It would be my disgrace and your discomfort: I take my leave at once.[Exit.] LADY MACDUFF. Sirrah, your father's dead: And what will you do now? How will you live? SON. As birds do, mother. LADY MACDUFF. What, with worms and flies? SON. With what I get, I mean; and so do they. LADY MACDUFF. Poor bird! thou'ldst never fear the net nor lime, The pitfall nor the gin. SON. Why should I, mother? Poor birds they are not set for.

My father is not dead, for all your saying.

LADY MACDUFF.

Macbeth/ACtIV 8 Yes, he is dead: how wilt thou do for a father? SON. Nay, how will you do for a husband? LADY MACDUFF. Why, I can buy me twenty at any market. SON. Then you'll buy 'em to sell again. LADY MACDUFF. Thou speak'st with all thy wit; and yet, i' faith, With wit enough for thee. SON. Was my father a traitor, mother? LADY MACDUFF. Ay, that he was. SON. What is a traitor? LADY MACDUFF. Why, one that swears and lies. SON. And be all traitors that do so? LADY MACDUFF. Every one that does so is a traitor, and must be hang'd. SON. And must they all be hang'd that swear and lie? LADY MACDUFF. Every one. SON. Who must hang them? LADY MACDUFF. Why, the honest men. SON. Then the liars and swearers are fools; for there are liars and swearers enow to beat the honest men, and hang up them. LADY MACDUFF. Now, God help thee, poor monkey! But how wilt thou do for a father? SON. If he were dead, you'ld weep for him: if you would not, it were a good sign that I should guickly have a new father. LADY MACDUFF. Poor prattler, how thou talk'st! [Enter a MESSENGER.] MESSENGER.

Macbeth/ACtIV 9 Bless you, fair dame! I am not to you known, Though in your state of honour I am perfect. I doubt some danger does approach you nearly: If you will take a homely man's advice, Be not found here; hence, with your little ones. To fright you thus, methinks, I am too savage; To do worse to you were fell cruelty, Which is too nigh your person. Heaven preserve you! I dare abide no longer.[Exit.] LADY MACDUFF. Whither should I fly? I have done no harm. But I remember now I am in this earthly world; where to do harm Is often laudable; to do good, sometime Accounted dangerous folly: why then, alas, Do I put up that womanly defence, To say I have done no harm? [Enter MURDERERS.] What are these faces? FIRST MURDERER. Where is your husband? LADY MACDUFF. I hope, in no place so unsanctified Where such as thou mayst find him. FIRST MURDERER. He's a traitor! SON. Thou liest, thou shag-hair'd villain! FIRST MURDERER. What, you egg! [Stabbing him.] Young fry of treachery! SON. He has kill'd me, mother: Run away, I pray you![Dies. Exit LADY MACDUFF, crying "Murder!" and pursued by the MURDERERS.]

ACT IV, SCENE III. [England. Before the King's palace. Enter MALCOLM and MACDUFF.] MALCOLM. Let us seek out some desolate shade, and there Weep our sad bosoms empty. MACDUFF.

Macbeth/ACtIV 10 Let us rather Hold fast the mortal sword; and, like good men, Bestride our down-fall'n birthdom: each new morn New widows howl; new orphans cry; new sorrows Strike heaven on the face, that it resounds As if it felt with Scotland, and yell'd out Like syllable of dolour. MALCOLM. What I believe. I'll wail: What know, believe; and what I can redress, As I shall find the time to friend, I will. What you have spoke, it may be so perchance. This tyrant, whose sole name blisters our tongues, Was once thought honest: you have loved him well; He hath not touch'd you yet. I am young; but something You may deserve of him through me, and wisdom To offer up a weak, poor, innocent lamb T'appease an angry god. MACDUFF. I am not treacherous. MALCOLM. But Macbeth is. A good and virtuous nature may recoil In an imperial charge. But I shall crave your pardon; That which you are, my thoughts cannot transpose: Angels are bright still, though the brightest fell: Though all things foul would wear the brows of grace, Yet grace must still look so. MACDUFF. I have lost my hopes. MALCOLM. Perchance even there where I did find my doubts. Why in that rawness left you wife and child, Those precious motives, those strong knots of love, Without leave-taking?- I pray you, Let not my jealousies be your dishonours, But mine own safeties:- you may be rightly just, Whatever I shall think. MACDUFF. Bleed, bleed, poor country! Great tyranny, lay thou thy basis sure, For goodness dare not check thee! wear thou thy wrongs. Thy title is affeer'd!- Fare thee well, lord:

I would not be the villain that thou think'st For the whole space that's in the tyrant's grasp, And the rich East to boot. MALCOLM.

Be not offended:

I speak not as in absolute fear of you. I think our country sinks beneath the yoke; It weeps, it bleeds; and each new day a gash Is added to her wounds: I think, withal, There would be hands uplifted in my right; And here, from gracious England, have I offer Of goodly thousands: but, for all this When I shall tread upon the tyrant's head, Or wear it on my sword, yet my poor country Shall have more vices than it had before; More suffer, and more sundry ways than ever, By him that shall succeed. MACDUFF. What should he be? MALCOLM. It is myself I mean: in whom I know All the particulars of vice so grafted, That, when they shall be open'd, black Macbeth Will seem as pure as snow; and the poor state Esteem him as a lamb, being compared With my confineless harms. MACDUFF. Not in the legions Of horrid hell can come a devil more damn'd In evils to top Macbeth. MALCOLM. I grant him bloody, Luxurious, avaricious, false, deceitful, Sudden, malicious, smacking of every sin That has a name: but there's no bottom, none, In my voluptuousness: your wives, your daughters, Your matrons, and your maids, could not fill up The cistern of my lust; and my desire All continent impediments would o'erbear, That did oppose my will: better Macbeth Than such an one to reign. MACDUFF. Boundless intemperance

In nature is a tyranny; it hath been Th'untimely emptying of the happy throne, And fall of many kings. But fear not yet To take upon you what is yours: you may Convey your pleasures in a spacious plenty, And yet seem cold, the time you may so hoodwink. We have willing dames enough; there cannot be That vulture in you, to devour so many As will to greatness dedicate themselves, Finding it so inclined.

MALCOLM.

With this, there grows,

In my most ill-composed affection, such A stanchless avarice, that, were I king, I should cut off the nobles for their lands; Desire his jewels, and this other's house: And my more-having would be as a sauce To make me hunger more; that I should forge Quarrels unjust against the good and loyal, Destroying them for wealth.

MACDUFF.

This avarice

Sticks deeper; grows with more pernicious root Than summer-seeming lust; and it hath been The sword of our slain kings: yet do not fear; Scotland hath foisons to fill up your will, Of your mere own: all these are portable, With other graces weigh'd.

MALCOLM.

But I have none: the king-becoming graces, As justice, verity, temperance, stableness, Bounty, perseverance, mercy, lowliness,

Devotion, patience, courage, fortitude,

I have no relish of them; but abound

In the division of each several crime,

Acting it many ways. Nay, had I power, I should

Pour the sweet milk of concord into hell,

Uproar the universal peace, confound

All unity on earth.

MACDUFF.

O Scotland, Scotland!

MALCOLM.

If such a one be fit to govern, speak:

Macbeth/ACtIV 13 I am as I have spoken. MACDUFF. Fit to govern! No, not to live.- O nation miserable, With an untitled tyrant bloody-sceptred, When shalt thou see thy wholesome days again, Since that the truest issue of thy throne By his own interdiction stands accurst, And does blaspheme his breed?- Thy royal father Was a most sainted king: the gueen that bore thee, Oftener upon her knees than on her feet, Died every day she lived. Fare thee well! These evils thou repeat'st upon thyself Hath banish'd me from Scotland.- O my breast, Thy hope ends here! MALCOLM. Macduff, this noble passion, Child of integrity, hath from my soul Wiped the black scruples, reconciled my thoughts To thy good truth and honour. Devilish Macbeth By many of these trains hath sought to win me Into his power; and modest wisdom plucks me From over-credulous haste: but God above Deal between thee and me! for even now I put myself to thy direction, and Unspeak mine own detraction; here abjure The taints and blames I laid upon myself, For strangers to my nature. I am yet Unknown to woman; never was forsworn; Scarcely have coveted what was mine own; At no time broke my faith; would not betray The devil to his fellow; and delight No less in truth than life: my first false speaking Was this upon myself:- what I am truly, Is thine, and my poor country's, to command:-Whither, indeed, before thy here-approach, Old Siward, with ten thousand warlike men, Already at a point, was setting forth: Now we'll together; and the chance of goodness Be like our warranted guarrel! Why are you silent? MACDUFF. Such welcome and unwelcome things at once

'Tis hard to reconcile.

Macbeth/ACtIV 14 [Enter a DOCTOR.] MALCOLM. Well; more anon.- Comes the king forth, I pray you? DOCTOR. Ay, sir; there are a crew of wretched souls That stay his cure: their malady convinces The great assay of art; but, at his touch, Such sanctity hath heaven given his hand, They presently amend. MALCOLM. I thank you, doctor. [Exit DOCTOR.] MACDUFF. What's the disease he means? MALCOLM. 'Tis call'd the evil: A most miraculous work in this good king; Which often, since my here-remain in England, I have seen him do. How he solicits heaven. Himself best knows: but strangely-visited people, All swol'n and ulcerous, pitiful to the eye, The mere despair of surgery, he cures; Hanging a golden stamp about their necks, Put on with holy prayers: and 'tis spoken, To the succeeding royalty he leaves The healing benediction. With this strange virtue, He hath a heavenly gift of prophecy; And sundry blessings hang about his throne, That speak him full of grace. MACDUFF. See, who comes here? MALCOLM. My countryman; but yet I know him not. [Enter ROSS.] MACDUFF. My ever-gentle cousin, welcome hither. MALCOLM. I know him now:- good God, betimes remove The means that makes us strangers! ROSS. Sir, amen. MACDUFF. Stands Scotland where it did? ROSS.

Macbeth/ACtIV 15 Alas, poor country,-Almost afraid to know itself! It cannot Be call'd our mother, but our grave: where nothing, But who knows nothing, is once seen to smile; Where sighs, and groans, and shrieks that rent the air, Are made, not mark'd; where violent sorrow seems A modern ecstasy: the dead man's knell Is there scarce ask'd for who; and good men's lives Expire before the flowers in their caps, Dying or e'er they sicken. MACDUFF. O, relation Too nice, and yet too true! MALCOLM. What's the newest grief? ROSS. That of an hour's age doth hiss the speaker; Each minute teems a new one. MACDUFF. How does my wife? ROSS. Why, well. MACDUFF. And all my children? ROSS. Well too. MACDUFF. The tyrant has not batter'd at their peace? ROSS. No; they were well at peace when I did leave 'em. MACDUFF. Be not a niggard of your speech: how goes't? ROSS. When I came hither to transport the tidings, Which I have heavily borne, there ran a rumour Of many worthy fellows that were out; Which was to my belief witness'd the rather, For that I saw the tyrant's power a-foot: Now is the time of help; your eye in Scotland Would create soldiers, make our women fight, To doff their dire distresses. MALCOLM. Be't their comfort

Macbeth/ACtIV 16 We are coming thither: gracious England hath Lent us good Siward and ten thousand men; An older and a better soldier none That Christendom gives out. ROSS. Would I could answer This comfort with the like! But I have words That would be howl'd out in the desert air, Where hearing should not latch them. MACDUFF. What concern they? The general cause? or is it a fee-grief Due to some single breast? ROSS. No mind that's honest But in it shares some woe; though the main part Pertains to you alone. MACDUFF. If it be mine, Keep it not from me, quickly let me have it. ROSS. Let not your ears despise my tongue for ever, Which shall possess them with the heaviest sound That ever yet they heard. MACDUFF. Hum! I guess at it. ROSS. Your castle is surprised; your wife and babes Savagely slaughter'd: to relate the manner, Were, on the quarry of these murder'd deer, To add the death of you. MALCOLM. Merciful heaven!-What, man! ne'er pull your hat upon your brows; Give sorrow words: the grief that does not speak Whispers the o'er-fraught heart, and bids it break. MACDUFF. My children too? ROSS. Wife, children, servants, all That could be found. MACDUFF. And I must be from thence!-

Macbeth/ACtIV 17 My wife kill'd too? ROSS. I have said. MALCOLM. Be comforted: Let's make us medicines of our great revenge, To cure this deadly grief. MACDUFF. He has no children.- All my pretty ones? Did you say all?- O hell-kite!- All? What, all my pretty chickens and their dam At one fell swoop? MALCOLM. Dispute it like a man. MACDUFF. I shall do so; But I must also feel it as a man: I cannot but remember such things were. That were most precious to me.- Did heaven look on, And would not take their part? Sinful Macduff, They were all struck for thee! naught that I am, Not for their own demerits, but for mine, Fell slaughter on their souls: heaven rest them now! MALCOLM. Be this the whetstone of your sword: let grief Convert to anger; blunt not the heart, enrage it. MACDUFF. O, I could play the woman with mine eyes, And braggart with my tongue!- But, gentle heavens, Cut short all intermission; front to front Bring thou this fiend of Scotland and myself; Within my sword's length set him; if he scape, Heaven forgive him too! MALCOLM. This tune goes manly. Come, go we to the king; our power is ready; Our lack is nothing but our leave: Macbeth Is ripe for shaking, and the powers above Put on their instruments. Receive what cheer you may: The night is long that never finds the day.[Exeunt.]
