

A room south of the apse of the church contains a baptismal font and this Greek inscription. The inscription says that the mosaic was made in the time of Theophilus, son of Stephanos the Elder and Hegoumenos. The date corresponds to 585/586 C.E.