Blind Mellon Software

Kitchen Sink

Kitchen Sink is organized into screens, each with a different function the screens are as follows:

Command Configuration

Notepad Unzip

Disk Wallpaper

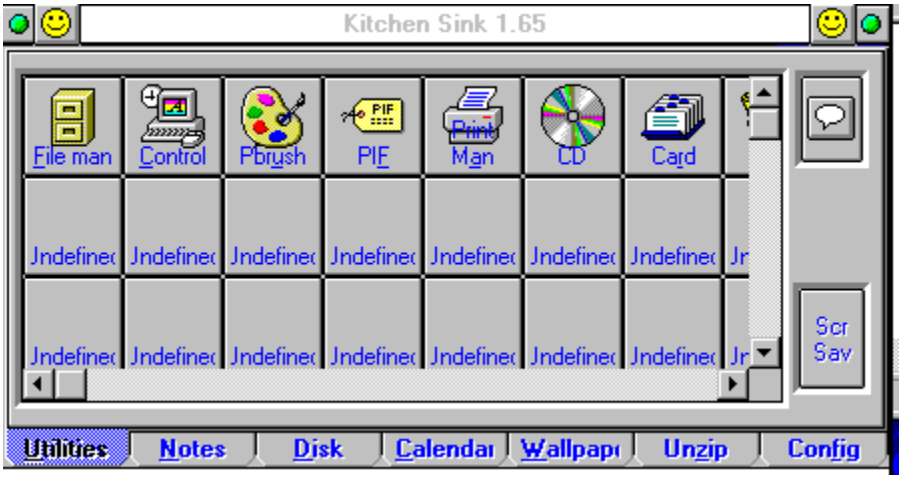
Calendar

Registration

Other Products

Blind Mellon Software, 1995 All Rights Reserved

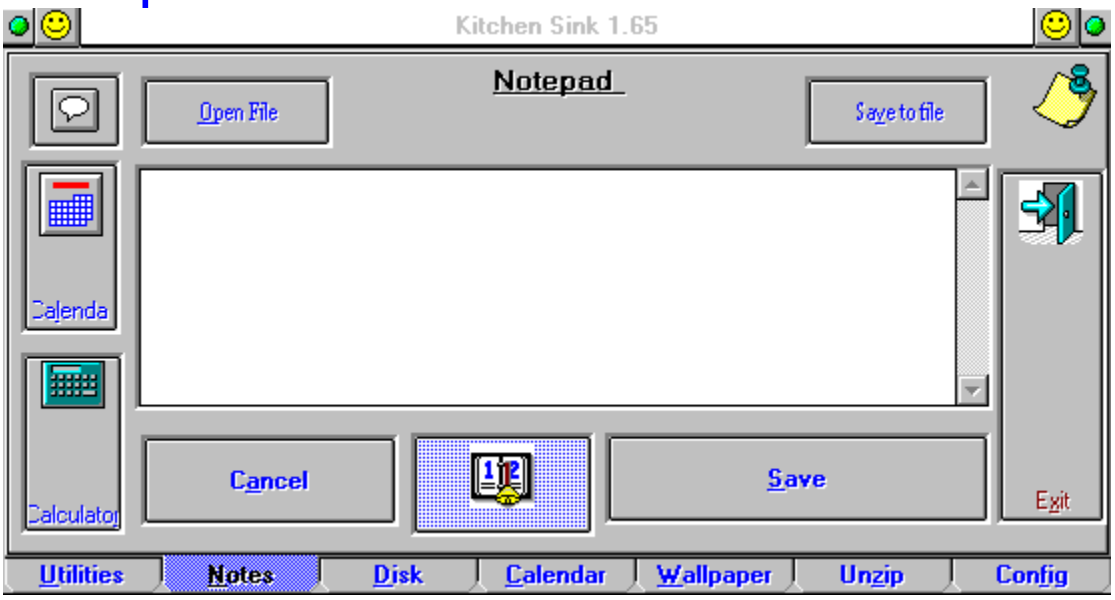
Command Screen



Utilities - includes some common windows utilities as well as twenty buttons available for the user to define you own programs to launch. Right click on the button to define or change the launch definition. This entire screen may be resized and kitchen sink will remember the size and location of each screen as defined by the user.

Blind Mellon Software, 1995 All Rights Reserved

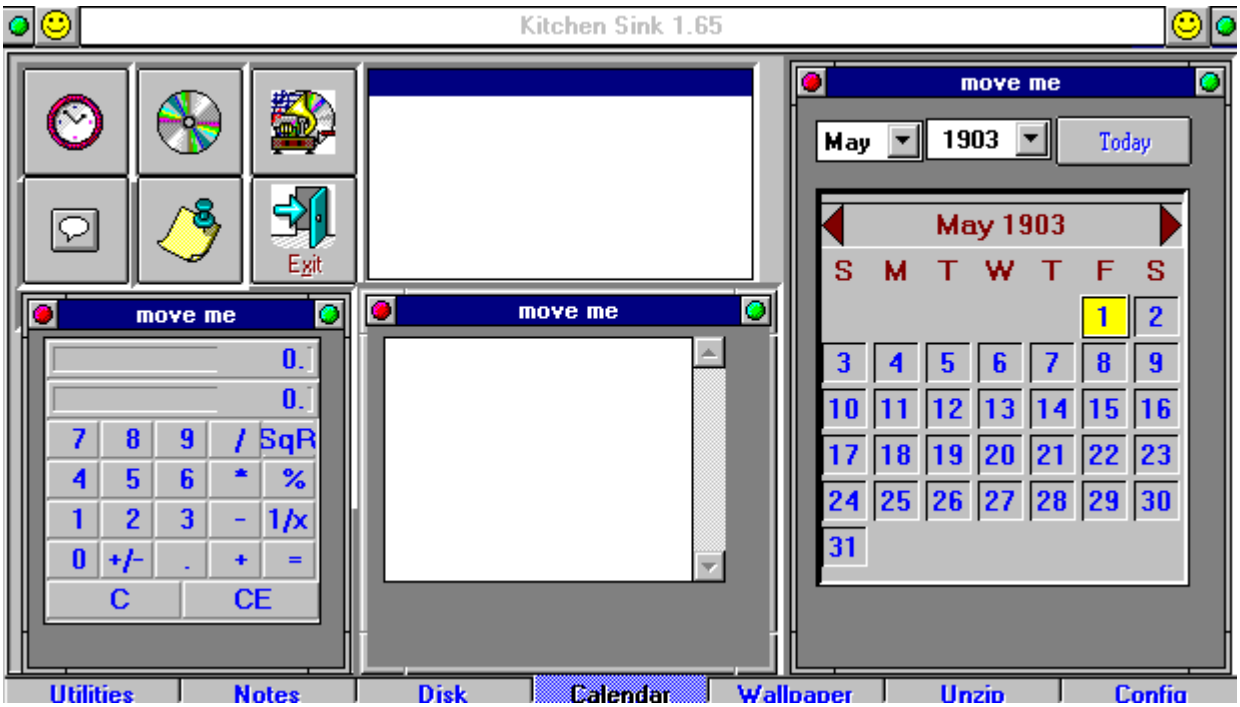
Notepad Screen



Notepad is a dual purpose notepad, when you enter a note and depress the save button the note will be saved into the current daily calendar, daily notes are cumulative and may be managed in the calendar screen. The notepad may also be used to load and save text files via the buttons provided. There is also a drag and drop calculator and calendar available. The notepad screen and the calendar screen work together to provide input as well as history of your notes.

Blind Mellon Software, 1995 All Rights Reserved

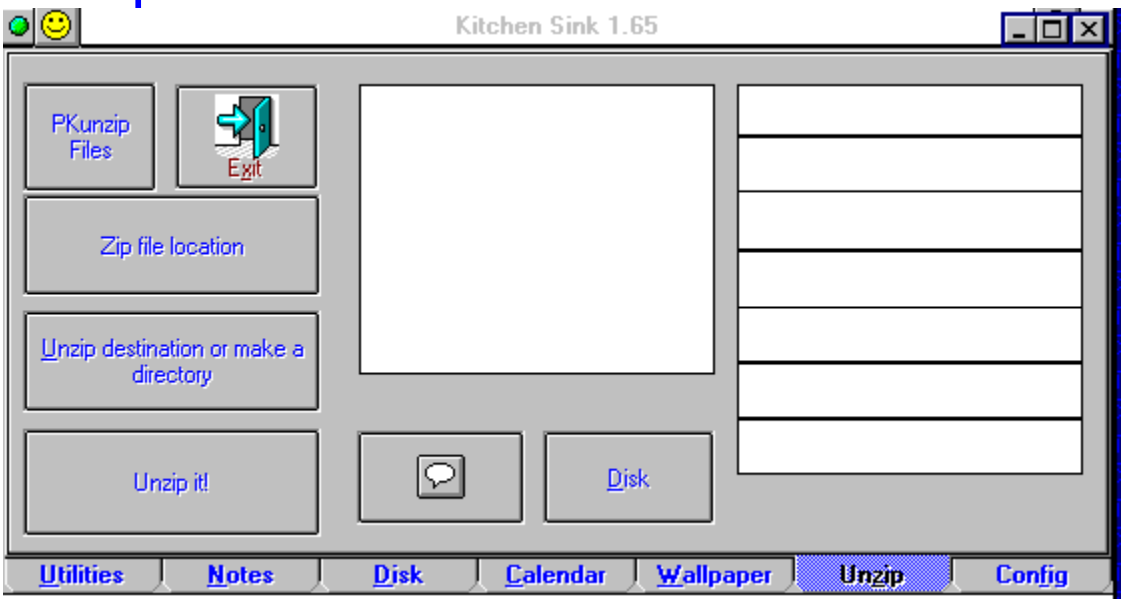
Calendar Screen



Utility menu to allow you to access all daily notes that you have saved in the past, search facilities are present via the popup menus that are available(right click), as well as the ability to modify the notes, print, edit. A right click on the calendar screen background will reveal a popup menu with options that is context sensitive depending on the location you select. You should notice that the various windows are sizable and under user control, depress the red and green buttons to resize or resize with the mouse.

Blind Mellon Software, 1995 All Rights Reserved

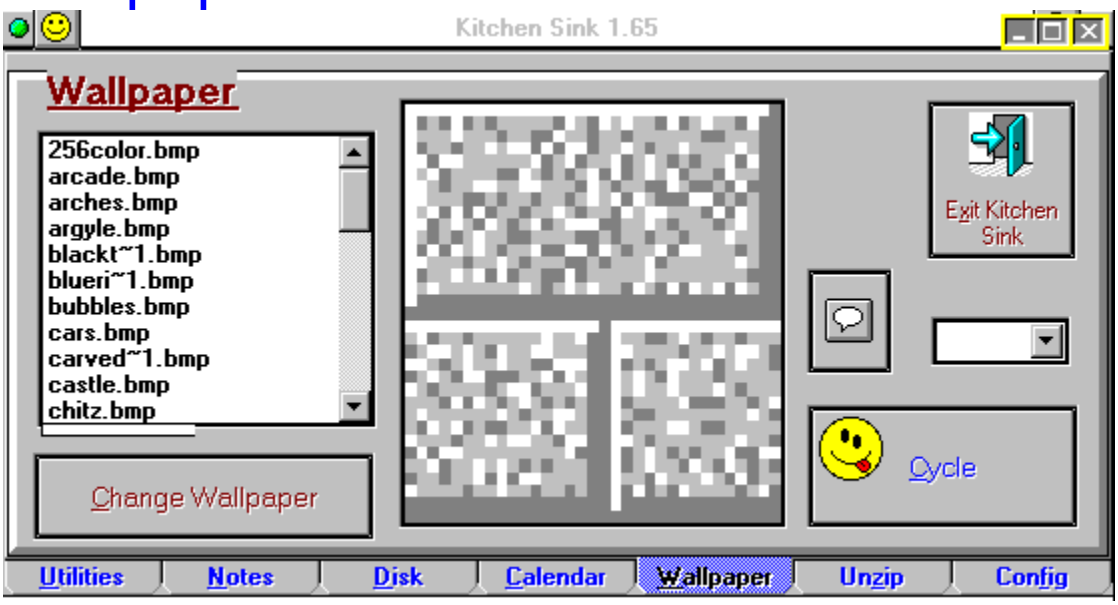
Unzip Screen



The Unzip screen is used as a shell for the standard pkzip utilities, once installed you may use this screen to unzip files using pkunzip.

Blind Mellon Software, 1995 All Rights Reserved

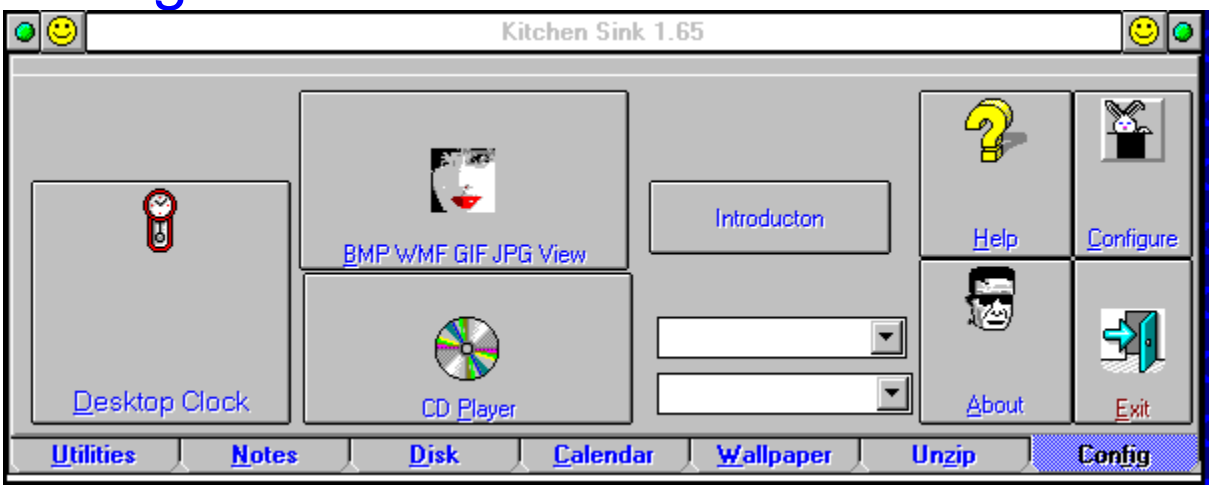
Wallpaper Screen



Utility screen that will allow you to change your windows wallpaper on demand or schedule changes.

Blind Mellon Software, 1995 All Rights Reserved

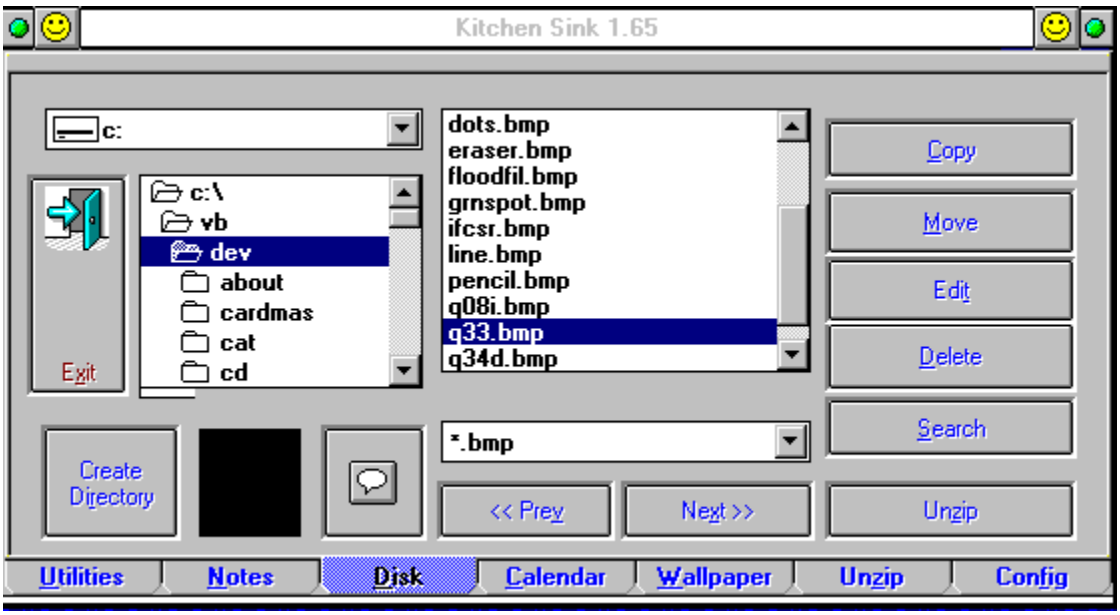
Configuration Screen



A combination of facilities available, including, A desktop clock with selectable fonts and colors, the clock may be moved with the mouse and will remain where the user leaves it on the screen. Two viewers for graphics files, which will read and display BMP, WMF,GIF files. A tool to allow the user to configure the screen sizes and locations of each screen. A desktop CD Player with volume control. The user also has the ability to redefine the number of tabs displayed as well as the locations of the tabs on the screens.

Blind Mellon Software, 1995 All Rights Reserved

File Screen



This screen provides you with the ability to access your disk information as well as manage that information via the popup menus. Popup menus are common in Kitchen Sink and may be accessed by depressing the right mouse button in most locations on any screen. File utilities are available in the popup menu. You may also search the disk via the button provided as well as launch any file in the list by double clicking on the file. Templates are available below the directory window.

Blind Mellon Software, 1995 All Rights Reserved

Cliptrap

The cliptrap facility may be turned on and off via the popup menu from the utility screen, once activated cliptrap will copy all text clips sent to the clipboard, it will track as many as 20 of them and retain them in it own text editor.

Blind Mellon Software, 1995 All Rights Reserved

Files drag and drop

This is an alternate facility in cliptrap provided so that the user may drag a filename or list of filenames and drop them onto kitchen sink, the list will be maintained in a separate buffer and may be manipulated by the user, i.e. delete, copy, move, etc.

Blind Mellon Software, 1995 All Rights Reserved