

Main Window:

The main window of MoleculeViewer consists of a display view where the molecule is displayed and a scroll view containing a list of all the atoms comprising the molecule. The scroll view is used to select individual atoms for editing in an inspector.

paste_6.tiff ↵