Maybe TIFF or PCX

Optional status window that tells you:

what you are drawing

percent completed

elapsed time, remaining time

Printing

New Features

Since this is the first release, they are all new features.-

Known Bugs

If I waited until all the bugs were out and all the features in, I would never publish this.

Bugs:

This help system is barely implemented; a lot of the terms are either unrelated or just stubbed out - expect major improvements next release.

The palette editor works best in 256 color mode; other modes need some work.

Random crashes still occur - fixes in progress.

File Menu

The File menu includes commands that enable you to open and save files, establish a new workspace, and to print. The file menu is only present in the Deluxe version of GTOYS.EXE.

For more information, select the File menu command name.

Device Independent Bitmap Format (DIB)

To paste an image from the clipboard to the current window, select PASTE from the edit menu.

About the only reason you would want to do this is to animate the palette of a bitmap you have on the clipboard.

Benoit Mandelbrot
