Subject: Smiling Dog from Judith Schaechter...

Hi,

The enclosed tiffs were taken from a work in stained glass by artist Judith Schaechter. I don't know what the title of the work is but it's basically of a kid loading a gun under an archway of these smiling dog heads. I only report the facts...

The work was included in an article by the artist in the October issue of Art? Alternatives magazine.

Scanned and brightened in Powerscan -> Alpha'ed in Icon -> reduced and touched up in IconBuilder. HSD's Powerscan app that comes with their scanner can modify the brightness, contrast and sharpness of tiffs and eps documents. Who needs Image? -: ) -: )

My thanks to Ms. Schaechter for doing such amazingly cool work.

Tim
