

Chapter 1:

Installing the Pixel Magician Application

the Before starting the installation process, please be sure you have read previous section, ^aBefore You Begin.^o

paste_0_1_1.tiff ↵

To Install Pixel Magician:

1. Insert the Pixel Magician floppy disk into the floppy-disk drive.
2. Find the file called PixelMagician.pkg in the Workspace Manager's File Viewer.
3. Double click on the ^apkg^o icon to start the Installer program.

paste_1_1.tiff ↵
the The Installer panel will appear with the Pixel Magician icon and words ^aPixelMagician Application.^o

4. Click the Install button in the upper left corner of the Installer panel.

which

A file browser will appear so you can choose the directory in Pixel Magician will be installed.

5. If you will be the only user, then you should select the ~/Apps directory (~ is your home directory). If more than one person will be using the application then you should select the /LocalApps directory. On some multi-user systems only the system administrator is allowed to install applications in the /LocalApps directory. If this is the case, ask your local system administrator to install the package for you.
6. A panel will pop up to confirm the installation directory you have chosen. Click the Install button to copy all the files into the chosen directory.
7. When the installation is complete, click the Quit option from the Installer menu.
8. Use the Workspace Manager's File Viewer to locate the directory you installed (either ~/Apps or /LocalApps). There you will see the Pixel Magician application, called PixelMagician.app. Sample pictures are located in a subdirectory in the PixelMagician.app directory called SamplePictures. Use the Workspace Manager's ^aOpen as Folder^o command to open the PixelMagician.app directory.
9. You may drag the PixelMagician.app icon from the File Viewer onto the application dock.

10. Double-click the Pixel Magician icon to launch the program.

you 11. The first time the program is started, a panel will appear asking to register your copy of Pixel Magician.

paste_2_1.tiff ↵

the 12. Enter your information and click the OK button. You may leave company field blank, but you must enter a name.

work-
icons.
needs to uninstall

Note: For the Pixel Magician image type icons to appear in the space, you must allow the Workspace Manager to register the new icons. This can be done by logging out, then logging back in. This only needs to be done once after installing. Also, be aware of other image viewer programs that have custom icons. If there is a conflict, you can uninstall the conflicting application.