Chapter 5:
Image Windows

When an image is opened, either from the Open panel or Convert window, an image window is created. The image window has scroll bars for vertical and horizontal scrolling. There is also a single pop-up button list located in the lower right corner of the window. This button list can be used to quickly enlarge/reduce the image for viewing.

Note: When saving an image, any scaling from this button is ignored.

paste_28.tiff ¬