

Coordinate System:

The Coordinate system inspector allows the user to transform vector coordinates from one system to another, or define vectors in a different system. Any changes affect all vectors (the coordinates that define the vector change, but the vector itself remains unchanged.) The Graphic Window always displays vectors in the rectangular system.

paste_12.tiff ↵