Main Window:

The main window of VectorMath contains a browser and various built-in inspectors.   The browser is used to select scalars and vectors that have been added to the main window.   Once selected, the attributes of the scalar or vector can be changed with one of the inspectors accessed through the pull-down menu.

`paste_13.tiff ¬`