Editor Inspector:

The editor inspector allows the user to change the name and the components of a vector or scalar selected in the browser. When a new scalar or vector is added to the main window, the Editor Inspector is automatically called up.   Once changes have been made, the user must hit return to perform the changes.

paste_11.tiff ¬