Introduction:

VectorMath is an application designed to help users create, manipulate and visualize vectors.

Multiple vectors can be displayed simultaneously at any orientation.   Various vector algebraic operations can be performed on one or more vectors and scalars.