

Disable Redisplay

When checked, the Disable Redisplay checkbox on the Main Parameters Panel will prevent the Image Display Window from being redrawn. If you're going to change several image controls, you can select this checkbox to avoid the delay in redrawing the image after each change. When you deselect the checkbox, the Image Display Window will redisplay.

Shortcut: Command-D toggles the Disable Redisplay checkbox from the keyboard.

TextArt: The Manual:

Disable Redisplay: p. 35