

Exporting Files

You can create a PostScript file from the current TextArt image displayed in the Image Display Window by choosing Save To... from the Window menu when the Image Display Window is the main window and selecting the PostScript file type.

You can create a PostScript, or TIFF file from a Layout Board window by choosing Save To... from the Window menu when a Layout Board window is the main window and selecting the appropriate file type.

TextArt: The Manual:

Save To command      p. 66