Tim,

Here's some for you to place on any NeXTs in the world trade center, or for any Chicagoans on the list, how about on those "infamous" stock/commodity trading NeXTs (Phibro?)

Stay tuned for more mayhem from those late-night workers at CX5, the same ones that have no respect for virtual reality.

Subject: What A Blast

Here's a string of mix & match icons (with serving suggestions) that have been rolling around my shelf and threatening to detonate if not posted. Now seems the appropriate opportunity ...

bomb1.tiff
( .dir )

bomb2.tiff
( .dir or .open )

bomblast.tiff
( .open )

... as well as an eggs-cuse to post the "Riddle Results".

I started writing this and it was getting real long in the tooth (not that it isn't still). What it all boils down to is this - it was a BLAST - great fun and more responses than I would have guessed. And I learned a few new things to boot; not the least of which is - "You gotta get up prit-tee early (Universal Time) to stump the list." Thanks for all the great responses.

There have been eggs-actly 50 responses up to this moment. Many clever, many witty and all correct; not a BOMB in the batch. Some thought it was too easy. Hey gang, I'm sure I'm not the only one that can think up a puzzle to go with an icon posting.

All right, so cut the gab and get to it. Everyone is just BURSTING with anticipation, right?

I know there was some inequity in this deal. I wouldn't have had a chance. The posting dropped into my own mailbox long after the first responses. I was probably asleep when it did. So what to do?

Ok, how's this for this time around? - Everybody wins ! We'll do Gold Egg, Silver Egg and Bronze Egg based on the "postmark's" Universal Time with all runners up (those with a postmark prior to this posting) getting something too (such at deal). I'm not quite sure what that' will be yet, but give me a couple of days.

First, Second and Third Place winners have been notified and are announced with permission.

GOLD	goes to Gideon King	Tues 20:37:01 UT
SILVER	goes to Andrew Bernstein	Tues 20:57:16 UT
BRONZE	goes to Raymond N. Zych, Jr.	Tues 20:57:25 UT ( Whoa ... close! )

Let's do it again sometime. "Give it a go mate" - as they say in New Zealand; right Gideon ?

Phew, gotta go, I'm not on overtime.

" This is crazy stuff "
