BAKAYARO!

In Japan, when you do something dumb (or when someone else does the same) it's sometimes acceptable to hit your forehead with your palm and exclaim "Bakayaro" - the moral equivalent of "What a dope I am!" or something like that. Well here are two fairly dopey icons that pretty much say the same thing. Aki Ohno <aohno@bmt.gun.com> did the original "Baka" and I took the whole thing too far, creating the "Yaro" opendir and making the whole thing 2-bit compliant. I couldn't get IconBuilder to correctly do the alpha in the 2-bit image, so mono users may not see what I intended.
