We're all Dragonball fans out in this neck of the woods. That's Dragonball, not the later rubbish called Dragonball Z

Fer those of you not in the know, Dragonball is a Japanese Cartoon that's been going on forever. In Hong Kong, the show is aired at 12 midnight with a parental guidance warning.

BTW When Miss Lunch (she's "out to lunch -- thus her name) sneezes she changes from a nice girl with purple hair to a blond gun waving wacko..... They look quite good on the dock. All of them were scanned in on a PC and tweaked with Picture Publisher by Kevin Ward before being ported over to my NeXT.

Thanks Kevin,
