

From: t0581dh@network.cfc.com (David Hamilton)
Date: Mon, 21 Feb 94 12:38:42 -0500
To: next-icon@gun.com
Subject: Rodent Field Guide #1

Rodentia Iconicus Identifficus
A Field Guide & Rodent Symbol Primer
For The Enthusiast
(#1 in a series)

- I. Mousekateerus Cuteus Iconicus :
A small iconic member of the virtual order -
Common Name: Eeeek!
Eeeek!_1.tiff ⇐ Eeeek!_2.tiff ⇐

Spotting Features: With dainty rounded pink ears and small endearing round black eyes, we see the lovable Cuteus

Tiffus Rodentia.

here, in its two most common "pixelated" manifestations -
.dirus iconicus and *.openusdirus iconicus

Habitat: Cuteus frequents various graphical environments including houses, paths and shelves. It gets along well with, and is often found in cohabitation with, other members of the Tiffus phylum.

Diet: Cuteus relishes most any form of digitized delectable. As the learned iconophile might well imagine, Cuteus' eyes light up and whiskers and crank-like tail elevate in grateful anticipation when offered such delicacies.

* Note: The images accompanying this guide are named in the common to avoid inadvertent deleterious side effects when placed in the enthusiast's files.

Picture Credit : The devotee is certain to appreciate the fine alpha-ized 12-bit renderings, created especially for this guide, by the renowned iconist (former "2-bit" artiste) - Rodere Roden.

Watch for future editions of this field guide.

"Fostering a better understanding of our rodent icon friends"