Subject: Jazz Icons

For you jazz fans out there (yes, both of you :)), here are some icons I threw together. A tad rough, but you get what you paid for. I tried to get a mix of well-known and some not-so well-known musicians.

Tina Brooks (tenor saxophonist), tinted, from the front cover of True Blue (Blue Note).

Jackie McLean (alto saxophonist), from the front cover of Let Freedom Ring (Blue Note):

Lee Morgan (trumpeter), with some fuzting of the border, from the front cover of Lee Way (Blue Note):

Bud Powell (pianist), alpha'd, from the front cover of The Amazing Bud Powell (Blue Note):

Thelonious Monk (pianist), alpha'd, from the front cover of Monk's Music (Riverside):

I know there's a bias towards Blue Note records but (a) they have been doing tons of great reissues lately (b) Francis Wolf (Blue Note co-founder) took some great photos (c) I have no affiliation with Blue Note, whatsoever.

That said, comments are welcome.
