This Archie Bunker-type chair actually came from the excellent online 4AD Records archives at jhuvvm.hcf.jhu.edu. To access the archives, login as '4ad-pics' during off-hours (or during 'on-hours' if you live in Asia).

I reduced and sharpened this image using T2. Greyscale image generated and joined in T2 as well.

I wish I had more time to do a little more with this, but for better or worse I'm pretty jammed these days. If anyone wants to isolate the chair from the background a little, feel free.

Note: The original is probably a copyrighted image, though the archive server mentions nothing.
