I love the World Wide Web. Its a great source for images. Here's a couple near and dear I found on a semi-random web page.

Yes, from Grand Day Out and The Wrong Trousers here are Wallace and Grommet, the eccentric inventors and lovers of cheese.

Those are two animated films by, if memory serves, Nick Park of the UK. The Wrong Trousers won the acadamy award for best animated short in 1993. Mr. Park is also well known for Creature Comforts.

The images were originally .gif images, probably scanned in from one of the films. I used WetPaint to scale them to the appropriate size and make the backgrounds transparent. As usual, no artistic talent on my part!
